

INNHOLDERS' HALL

WELCOMES YOU

Nestled in the heart of the City of London, near the iconic Royal Exchange and Bank of England, Innholders' Hall is a hidden gem that offers a perfect blend of history and culinary excellence. With three versatile rooms and a beautiful reception area, all providing privacy and a stunning historical backdrop, it's ideal for your special event.

The Minstrels' Gallery in the Great Hall adds an extra touch, offering options for entertainment, including a pianist, vocalist, or harpist. Our combination of heritage with excellent food and local produce, provided by The Cook and The Butler Events Company, will deliver a truly memorable experience.

We look forward to welcoming you to Innholders' Hall, our slice of History in The City of London.

THE RECEPTION ROOM

The Reception Room at Innholders' Hall provides an elegant space, ideal for welcoming guests. Linked to the Old Court Room and the Great Hall, it's perfect for pre-dinner drinks. The space offers a refined setting for guests to mingle before moving into the main event spaces for an unforgettable experience.

THE GREAT HALL

The Great Hall exudes history with its rich oak panelling which dates back to the rebuilding of the Hall in 1666 after the Great Fire of London. A favoured option for grand events, perfect for clients wishing to impress their guests with a touch of history.

Enhance the experience by utilising our stunning 18th-century minstrel's gallery, where you can feature a vocalist, harpist, pianist and more.
